YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES. Topic: "Missionary Heroes." (Acts XXVII, 22-36.)

The topic universal for the different de nominational young people's societies for to-morrow evening is, "Missions; Misversity," which is founded on Acts xxvii, 22-26.

The lesson under consideration is a part of the history of the shipwreck of the Apostile Paul in his journey as a prisoner to Rome. Paul had advised the centurion in charge and the officers of the vessel in which they journeyed not to loose from a port called Pair Havens, but they did not heed his advice. His statement was: "Sirs. I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only to the lading and the ship, but also of our rives." But the third day after they loosed from Pair Havens they were caulity in a mighty storm, so that the sun was not seen for many days. It was then Paul said: "Sirs, ye should have hearksned unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss. And now I exaner you to be of good cheer, for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship."

GOOD CHBER—The first thought of the lesson is that of cheerfulness under edversity. Paul was the only man in all that Lucas Avenue Cumberland Presbyterlan Sunday School will hold its raily day services to-morrow morrow morning, and a special programme will be rendered. The Eighth Cavairy band of Jefferson Barracks has tendered its services. The cert was the state of the s strumental in the salvation, not only in the salvation of those with him on the journey, but also of many on the island of Cauda. And when he reached Rome, he was practically given his liberty, was allowed his own house, and preached the rospei two wholes ears in that city. As a further result, thristianity was more firmly established there than in any city of the world. No wonder that he, from the retrospect point of life could say that "all things work together for good to them that ove God. What a lessen in all this for us to-day. Many times in life our troubles and afficultions overwhelm us, and we are apt to reproach God for our adverse experience. But when we have passed through it all, and we see the end of all the providences that have come to us, we can truly say. The Lord docth all things well." Some can never learn to fully trust God unless they are litefully made to "pass through the waters" of affiction. We need to have our faith literally made to "pass through the waters" of affliction. We need to have our faith and loyalty tested, and amid all adversity we should "be of good cheer."

UNION BIBLE CLASS RESUMED. Permanent Sinking Fund Will Be Established at Once.

The receipts of the local class during the last year aggregated $2.506.20; disbursements, $4.087.08, leaving a deficit of $1,160.88, which has been met by the Moody Bible Institute and forms a part of the $7.187.30 mentioned. At the meeting last night, however, this deficit was practically provided for, and considerable additional money was piedged for the work during the fall and winter. This is independent of the arrangement for the provision of the rental of the Odeon for the use of the class.

There are at present about 1.000 members of the class in St. Louis, and it is expected that this number will be greatly increased. It is the purpose of the four greatest Bible classes in the cities named to unite in a Bible class extension work, and so reach other great extension work, and so reach other great cities.
